The Thirty-Fifth Anniversary Edition of

The Hylander

McDowell Co. Public Library
90 West Court St.
Marion, NC 28752-3906

Foreword

This is the Thirty-fifth Anniversary Edition of the Hylander. The first Hylander was published in 1926. Its publication was discontinued for ten years and then started again. On some pages of this yearbook you will see how the Hylander of 1926 compares with the Hylander of today. One of the biggest changes made since the old yearbook is the spelling of its name from Highlander to Hylander.

On each division page, you will see the "Old Man" carried forward from the 1926 Hylander.

The editors sincerely hope that this book will hold a place in your heart for the fondest memories of Marion High School.

Dedication

Through deep appreciation, we dedicate this book to one who has so willingly devoted his interest and hard work to our athletic department and other phases of our school. His concern and encouragement has greatly influenced the lives of the students at Marion High School. For these reasons, we, the Hylander Club of 1961, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Jim McFadden.

In Memoriam

MR. JOSEPH L. NOYES

Gone away is a loyal friend of Marion High School, a supporter upon whom we often leaned for financial backing as well as the boosting of our morale. Mr. Noyes was never too busy to help a boy win a scholarship nor to have a word of commendation for one who had worked or played hard and well.

A keen sense of humor, a great faith in young people, a burning desire for progress characterized his chairmanship of the Marion School Board.

To live in the hearts one leaves behind is not to die.

Student Council

The officers of this year's Student Council have lived up to their campaign promises and have guided the council well this year.

Early last summer they began preparing for this school year. And their work was not in vain, for the Council, including the newly added Lower House, has done much to help improve Marion High School.

President Jerry Rowland

Student Council Officers

Bill Hemphill, Secretary; Jerry Rowland, President; Olivia Auerhamer, Vice-President; Jim Wall, Treasurer.

Seated: Sandy Carter, Nell Ruth Wilkerson, Bill Hemphill, Jim Wall, Jerry Rowland, Olivia Auerhamer, Sterlyn Washburn, Joe Hall, Brenda England, Mike Norwood.
Standing: Tennant Teeter, John Tucker.

Administration

Too few of the students at Marion High School realize the great responsibilities and problems which face Mr. Elledge and Mrs. Pyatt. Fulfilling the duties of principal and secretary of a high school is only a small part of their big job. Together, their jobs include: truant officer, janitor, doctor, banker, chauffeur, and orator. Besides these, Mr. Elledge alone is a successful insurance salesman, chiropractor, actor, comedian, and a champion golfer and bowler.

Mrs. Joseph Pyatt

Mr. Charles C. Elledge

Board Of Education

Mr. S. R. Perkins, Chairman; Mr. Eugene Cross, Jr., Mrs. Howard Burgin, Mr. Robert Shirley, Mrs. B. M. Eckerd, Mr. Robert W. Twitty.

Miss Helen Smarr

Mr. Hugh Beam

Since this is an anniversary edition, we reproduce here the dedication of the 1940 Hylander to Mr. Beam:

"During his years with Marion Schools he has won the love and respect of the entire student body. He is willing to listen to our problems, and then he tries to help us solve them. It is through his service and leadership that we have received encouragement to go forward."

Seniors

From childhood to adulthood in the short space of 12 years, this is the goal we Seniors have attained. At first, the years seemed to drag by, as time drags only for an impetuous youth. But suddenly, as if by some extraordinary locomotion, adulthood stepped in; and the years started to glide by, much too swiftly for our own choosing.

Not only have we gained academically, but socially and emotionally as well. We have known the estatic fun of the Washington trip, the pride in receiving class rings, the work and fun in producing the Senior play, and of course, memories of the Senior Christmas party.

In a short time, we will receive our diplomas. These mark the top of our first plateau in life. Many of us will climb to higher peaks, but others will remain on their first plateau. Whatever the case may be, we are proud that Marion High School was the source of our development.

CLASSES AT WORK

Mrs. Laughridge's class in Freshman English finds writing essential and sometimes even fascinating.

You can see from the display on the bulletin board that Mrs. Brown's class is studying "Julius Caesar."

These busy people are studying Latin under the supervision of Miss Alley.

The speech class is enjoying the pantomime of Kirby Toney, who at the moment is driving a truck. Bill Hemphill is the interested passenger.

Madame Gilkey leads her class francaise through the details of irregular verbs and many recordings into a new world of expression.

Mrs. Davis leads a class through the intricacies of the x's and y's in Algebra I.

The geometry class and Mrs. Lindsay review some of their constructions from the bulletin board.

That really is smoke you see in the chemistry lab. The photographer came away coughing, but Mrs. Van Dyke didn't even shed a tear.

Billy Hollifield's book tells you this is a class in physics.

Mrs. Welborn, with the assistance of her friend Oscar, explains the anatomy of the heart.

Regardless of the lack of uniformity in dress, these boys were really developing muscles through vigorous exercises when we snapped this picture.

Maps enhance the teaching of Mr. Reep in world history. This is one of our popular elective courses.

History

In Mr. Freeman's class we learn with pride the history of our country. Can we ever forget "The Declaration of Independence"?

Physical Education

Mr. Wilson tells his civics class about the democratic form of government.

The check-out desk in the library, supervised by Miss Glenn, is one of the busiest spots in school.

Shop

Sawing and planing and fitting go on in shop class where some beautiful work is done under the supervision of Mr. Rogers who hid while this picture was being made.

Lynn Ann Hampton, Brenda Moore, and Nancy Milligan are operating some of the business machines which are available to commercial classes.

Those with nimble fingers and good coordination succeed in Mrs. Morris's typing class.

Commerical

Refinishing furniture is one of the interesting projects of the Home Economics department.

As the climax to the very colorful Marionette Revue, Miss Phyllis Rutherford is crowned Miss Marion High by Miss Judy Norman, 1959 winner.

Mr. Elledge crowns the 1960 Homecoming Queen, Miss Judy Norman.

KEY CLUB SWEETHEART

The Key Club of Marion High School has the responsibility of conducting an active program of service activities for the school and community. It has always been sincere in its effort to aid the school and to uphold the standards of the Key Club. In this way it can fulfill its obligations as a Key Club and also be instrumental in developing more intelligent and serviceable citizens. The scope of its program is limited only by the ingenuity of the members. They are always able to find some project to undertake, but aside from the services and activities, the Key Clubber has to accept and promote the daily living of the Golden Rule, and promote the adoption of higher standards in scholarship, sportsmanship, and social contacts.

BAND DIRECTOR

Mr. Claude Jarrett

THE M.H.S.

"We made a 1!" During the past year, this cry was heard in many towns in North Carolina as busses carrying Marion High School Band members passed through. The band received Superior ratings at the District Contest in Boone, and at the State Contest in Greensboro, last spring. At the marching contest in Bristol, Tennessee, this fall, rain and mud did not stop our band. They put on an outstanding show in the pouring rain. And afterwards they all forgot how wet they were when the judges announced, "Marion, Division 1!"

BAND

The band has traveled a lot this year. In addition to all of Marion's football games, they went to homecoming at Appalachian College, in Boone, and the Shrine Bowl in Charlotte. At Asheville's Christmas parade this year, our band was one of the finest.

Regardless of whether they are playing in a concert, marching in a parade, or performing at a football game, our band lives up to its reputation of being one of the finest bands in Western North Carolina.
